

Peach Rap

(Peach)

Well, I was baking a cake for the love interest,
Sent him a note so he'd come collect.
They say blondes have more fun, are they wrong?
What have I done? Never jumped on anyone.
It's thrilling, just chilling with my toads
'Til I'm kidnapped-howd'ya like that?
Dragged across the map to an airship
Or a castle or whatever
I would never expect any player
To cross all this
Just for one kiss
And not even on the lips!

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

(Bowser)

Yes, I'm Bowser! Rex Testudines!
Best not step to me or I'll incinerate your face!
Don't tell anybody: I've got a sensitive side
Yes, my armour ain't so thick at my giant behind.
I feel strange when I'm with Princess Peach
but how can I express these feelings, how can I reach her with my love, so strong and sincere?
I'm so shy that when I'm trying so hard to tell the girl I love her, a switch inside me flips.
I lose my cool, can't take the pressure, scream out a roar!
Grab the princess, get to running, kick down that door!

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

(Peach)

So I'm hanging with the dinosaur man
And his clan.
Waiting for moustachioed-plumber, come hero
And when a girl gets bored, she needs attention
(There's a lesson
For you nerds out there)
So I'm playing with my hair
And I start to stare
At the boss man; he's smoking-
So hot he's breathing fire, and I'm not joking.

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

(Bowser)
Got Peach up in my castle, but I feel like such a fool.
The plumber's on his way, wants to end my reptile rule
but I haven't yet imparted these feelings deep inside.
Though I see her every day, my tongue, it gets tied.
I adore the Princess' sweet innocent face.
Her eyes piece this green shell (my spiky carapace).
Ain't nothing I can do now but stare at her,
and pray that for Mario it's GAME OVER!

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

(Peach)
I giggle. He wriggles. There's something in the air
Though it might just be the fumes
From this citadel of doom
Is it hot in here? Hope he's not queer.
When I wonder what he'll do to me
It's exciting.
Relationships with plumbers aren't exactly nail-biting.

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

(Bowser)

Oh my God! Did you see? I swear she smiled at me!
This is just the encouragement that Bowser needs.
Gonna do it this time, not gonna blink
nor even allow myself time to think about what might happen if get myself rejected.
Rather than terror, I only want to be loved and respected.
This is going so well, she says she likes me too
And she never wants to go back to boring Mario!
I could blame my reckless charm, or high fertility maybe
'Cause now I've gone and planted her a little bowser baby
(a little bowser baby).

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*

*I don't know what I should do
This is not the first time this has happened*
